

ISI* and the families of Grace Fellowship Church invite you to a Texas Ranch Camping Experience in Stephenville, Texas on Sept 20-21, 2008

- Camp out in tents overnight under the beautiful Texas night sky
- Ride horses and fish in a private lake (no license required)
- See a dairy cow milking operation and baby calves just learning to walk
- Learn skeet shooting (with a shotgun and clay flying targets) and roping
- Attend a “cowboy church” service with our hosts on Sunday morning
- Hay rides, volleyball, horseshoes, and an evening bonfire and singing
- 125 international students from TCU, SMU, UTD, UNT, and UTA
- Cost: only $25.00 per person!! (Plus a small fee if you register online)

Use the attached page to register or register online at www.isidfw.com.

Do not delay. Spaces are limited for this event and registrations are on a first-come basis. We always fill up quickly because this is such a great event! Registrations are considered complete when your campus ISI staff member receives your completed/signed form (next page) and your registration money.

Note: Registration money is not refundable; do not sign up unless you fully intend to go (but money is transferable to another int'l student in case you cannot go after registering)

Travel is by van or carpools leaving from each campus at around 9:45 Saturday Morning. We will return by 6:00 p.m. Sunday night.

Contact your campus ISI staff member for details about where to meet on campus.
